FISH HOUSE • RESTAURANT AND OYSTER BAR

AS FRESH AS IT GETS! LOCALLY-CAUGHT AND PERFECTLY-PREPARED SEAFOOD
IN THE HEART OF HISTORIC ST.ANDREWS.

Our heritage began with a special lady who had a vision and $75. In the late 1930's Rena Dell Windham was given a wedding gift of $75, which she saved for several years, with that $75 Rena Dell purchased an undeveloped lot at 1100 Beck Ave.

the corner of Front Beach and Middle Beach road, little did he know they were about to start what is now one of the few old fish houses. In 1993 the family restaurant was lost to fire, without hesitation, Capt. Mitch started a commercial fishing fleet. With hard work, dedication and the same vision his grandmother Rena Dell Windham had, Mitch reopened the family restaurant where it all began in St Andrew. Now,

Eventually Mrs. Windham's husband Tony and his father "Pap" built and opened their first seafood restaurant and oyster bar known as Windham and Son's.

Once Windham and Son's opened. Pap was out front sharing southern hospitality, greeting and chatting with passersby.

Pap loved fresh seafood so much, he often sold Mullet, snapper,

and grouper just outside the restaurant. His concern was not so much if locals and tourists came inside, as long as they were enjoying fresh, local caught seafood.

As Time passed, a third generation joined the family tradition, Mitch Holman and his father Pete continued in the Restaurant business. In 1967, Captain Mitch and Pete established Capt's Table Fish House Restaurant. The restaurant was located in the heart of Panama City Beach on

FULL BAR NOW AVAILABLE!

Mitch Holman and his family are pleased to share the same southern traditions passed down by Pap Windham, greeting locals and tourist with a smile, a handshake, and fresh caught southern seafood is what the Capt's Table is all about.

OYSTER BAR & SEAFOOD

Good Times. Better Beer. Awesome Oysters.

As quoted by Southern Living magazine, "The best oyster bar in PCB is Hunt's in downtown St. Andrews." Hunt's is YOUR destination for the best ice-cold oysters in town. Locally owned and operated by the Abrams family, you can expect a casual, family-friendly dining experience, serving the freshest grouper and snapper locally sourced daily from Tarpon Dock Seafood Market. We offer a full seafood menu along with traditional favorites such as steaks, chicken, burgers and sandwiches. We're open Mon-Sat for lunch and dinner.
